Born in Brazil, Tatiana Cepeda a.k.a. Tata is an East enthusiast and mad about the West. She loves to explore new destinations and revisit places she considers special. In her perspective, interacting with the local community, as well as being surprised by new cultures, local food and wine are some of the major ingredients to have an incredible travel experience.

Tata has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and is fluent both in Portuguese and Spanish. She is always working on her English and Italian skills to better serve her clients and audience. Since 2011 she has worked as a Consultant for the Brazilian travel agency Ganesh Turismo, being responsible for making reservations and creating personalized city tours. Currently living in Brazil she has also lived in Mexico for 5 years. She fell in love with traveling early in her life and has been to 5 continents and over 70 countries. Dedicated to the luxury industry, she can also say yes to a cruise ship or a theme park, which is an aspect that her audience really appreciates about her.
